Success Magazine for October contains a significant article by Ernest Poole, "America's Young Men," in which the author touches on the ambitions and various careers open to young men. Franklin P. Adams in "Lo, the Poor Musical Comedy," tells of the mixed and stressful sensations of writing a musical comedy in order, as experienced by O. Henry and himself in "Marriage in America," Robert Haven Schauler gives some interesting figures founded on careful investigation of the attitude of college girls toward marriage. In an article entitled "What's the Matter With Our High Schools?" Benjamin C. Gruenberg shows the present trend of education and the increasing scope of the school in directing and forming the life interest of the pupils. The fiction numbers of the month are "The Thread," a very strong story of the Tropics by James Francis Dwyer.
"A Swap in Physiques," by Wallace Irwin, is an amusing story, original in plot and whimsical in development.
"The Rub," by Zane Grey, is a baseball story full of exciting thrills for lovers of the game. "Jack and the Check Book" is the first of a series of Wall Street fairy stories by John Kendrick Bangs. "The Tenderfoot Goes Alligator Hunting," by Harris Dickson, is in that writer's usual entertaining style. Robert C. McElvay contributes a poem "To An Aeroplane." Orison Sweet Marden's editorial for the month is entitled "Change the Thought, Change the Man."

VAUDEVILLE FEATURE

A State Fair without its funny features would be a strange affair, indeed. Therefore, one of the first duties of the Fair management annually, is to choose and secure an amusement company with wholesome, clean and interesting features for the entertainment of the public, as the great throngs, wearied with the long day of sight seeing and studying demand some light diversion.

The management of the Mississippi State Fair has always sought to place before its visitors only clean, wholesome shows for this purpose, and always reserves the right to withdraw any show to which objection is made by the citizens or directors. This has made it possible for them to place as fair a line of entertainments before the visitors as may be found at any Fair, and always to maintain the very best of order within the Midway limits.

This discussion they naturally seek along a "Midway," or a "Pike," or in the "Circus." And they generally find that which is sought.

The splendid companies which have been contracted with for this year will very far excel any previous organization brought to Jackson. In quantity, in quality, in equipment and in the high class of the various features, the visitors to the State Fair this year will find that they have been well treated by the management, and that in this feature alone they have been more than repaid for their visit to the Capital City.

Usually, these shows confine themselves to the effort to entertain their visitors. This year there will be something more, and in several of the tents will be located shows of an instructive, educational nature, from which the visitor may learn wonderful lessons.

CAPT. BOGARDUS AGAIN HITS THE BULL'S EYE

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots, is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed he says: "I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 percent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by all druggists.

Faith, Hope and Charity are three graces—but the dis-graces are too numerous to mention.

A GENEROUS AND CHARITA- BLE WISH

"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Reagan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work, nor sleep.
He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Sold by all druggists.

When a man is ashamed to look in a mirror it's a safe bet that his wife buys his neckties.

FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for coughs, colds and ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. Contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.

A man's Christianity has to stand a pretty severe strain when he steps on a banana skin.

It is not what we know about the next world that frightens us, but what we don't know.

"IT BEATS ALL"

This is quoted from a letter of M.
Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first doses gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.

One of the dampers of ambition is the fact that the mantle of greatness has to be worn as a shroud too often.

A RELIABLE MEDICINE—NOT A NARCOTIC

Get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. It is safe and effective. Contains no opiates.
Refuse substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

In every action reflect upon the end, and in your undertaking it consider why you do it.

Good results always follow the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. They contain just the ingredients necessary to tone, strengthen and regulate the kidneys and bladder, and to cure headache.
Sold by all druggists.

A paper is in circulation in this city which has already been signed by more than a hundred qualified voters calling for a meeting for the purpose of organizing a Vardaman Club. It is understood the club will meet on Saturday, Oct. 22, to elect permanent officers, by which date it is expected fully two-thirds of those who vote at Okolona will be members of the club.
It is suggested that every voting presenter in the county should take a similar step, and request their organization in the central clubs at Houston and Okolona, and thence to the Central Vardaman Club at Jackson, which will be in the work order by the 29th day of this month.

Last winter was a very severe one, but we bear no grudge against it now.
